RICHARD COUNCIL (Russell) received his acting training at A.C.T. in San Francisco, where he later joined the company and appeared as Milo in SLEUTH. His numerous acting credits include appearances with the San Diego and New Jersey Shakespeare Festivals, Stanley Kowalski in A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE at the Guthrie Theatre and Simon in OTHERWISE ENGAGED at the Cincinnati Playhouse. This winter he and his wife and frequent acting partner, Chris Weatherhead, played husband and wife in ANGEL STREET at Cohoes Music Hall, where he also played Jamie in LONG DAY'S JOURNEY INTO NIGHT. On Broadway, Richard replaced Ellis Rabb as Tony Cavendish in THE ROYAL FAMILY and appeared in the R.S.C. production of SHERLOCK HOLMES. Off-Broadway, he appeared in the American Place production of ISADORA DUNCAN SLEEPS WITH THE RUSSIAN NAVY. Television soap opera enthusiasts will recognize Richard as the late Michael Blake in LOVE OF LIFE. GRINDER'S STAND marks his debut with LCT.

RED SUTTON (Clark) is making his professional theatre debut at LCT in GRINDER'S STAND. Born and raised in Windham, Red currently resides in Greenville where he teaches the sixth grade at Greenville Central School. He is widely known in the Capital District for his work in community theatre, which includes such roles as McMurphy in ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST and the title role in MACBETH at Slingerlands Playhouse. He has also appeared on PBS-TV in the AMERICAN SHORT STORY series.

EDGAR A. MULLINS, JR. (Pernia) began his acting career in high school in Brooklyn, New York where he appeared in THE GREAT WHITE HOPE and as Doctor Werner in DOES A TIGER WEAR A NECKTIE.
